The New Liberal Hall—Mistaken Identity—A Death.

Special to the Gazette.

Waco, January 13.—The new Liberal Hall, on Washington street, and by the way, the first one erected in the state, was formally opened to-day, with a lecture by Mr. J. D. Shaw, the ex-Methodist minister. The hall was built by the Religious and Benevolent association, of which Mr. Shaw is lecturer or pastor, and costs about $4,000. G. F. Tompkins, a cotton buyer of this city, who left here on the 9th for Monterey, Mexico, was arrested at Laredo by the city marshal there on suspicion of being Wallace, the defaulting and fugitive bank castier of Hopkinsville, Ky. After a detention of twenty-four hours, Mr. Tompkins succeeded in establishing his identity and was suffered to proceed on his journey a very indignant man.

Mr. Wm. B. McMullen, one of the leading young business men of the city, died last night and was buried this afternoon. He contracted pneumonia white making calls on New Year's day. For many years he had been connected with the boot and shoe house of John Sleeper.

The total enrollment in the public schools of the city for the week ending yesterday was 1.032.

A game of base ball between the murder.

A game of base ball between the Gulf City club and the Komes, for $250 and the gate money, was played at the base ball park to-day, and was won by the latter club by a score of 3 to 2 Nine innings were played. It was hotly contested, and was witnessed by 1,500 neople.

Mrs. General A. C. Dodge and her two daughters of Council Bluffs, Iowa, accompanied by Mrs. Prussey, arrived in a special car on a brief visit, and will leave here Tuesday. They are the guests of Mr. H. M. Hoxie and wife, who have been guests at the Beach hotel for the past ten days.

Wire destroyed in the country tributary to Cleburne would not make a dozen spools.

Work on the school house has been superated during the cold snap but will be resumed at once. A large quantity of fron shingles for the roof came yesterday.

A Coal Fleet Cut Loose.

Pittsburg, Pa., January 13.—Thirty-seven flats, containing 3,000 busheis of coal cach, were cut from their moorings at the Point bridge by h avy ice at 1:30 o'clock this morning and drifted down the Ohio river. Nineteen were receovered this aftern on. One sunk, and the balance are not yet heard from. It has been thawing all day and a higher river is expected.

The Kentucky Senatorial Race. Louisville, January 13.—The Cou-rier-Journal's Frankfort special re-ports no new developments on the sen-atorial contest. It is the calm before the storm of Monday's cureus. Quiet work is being done by friends of the candidates and whisky jugs are circu-lating freely. The caucus promises to be very exciting. be very exciting.

An Enterprising Highwayman Bags $800 from the Runnells Stage. Special to the Gazette.

Special to the Gazette.

Coleman, January 12.—Mr. C. H.
Williamson, just in from Runnels, brings the news of the stage being robbed last night, both coming and going to Runnels, by one man. He stopped the stage on its way to Concho with six passengers, and held it till the stage going to Runnels arrived, and robbed them both. The robber got about $800. No clue to the robber.

CLEBURNE.

The New Greenback Paper-Local and Personal Notes.

Special to the Gazette.

Cleburne, January 12.—The Greenback paper issued its first regular number this afternoon, and will regularly appear every Saturday morning. The "True Democrat," which is its name, is a six-column folio, patent outside. The publisher announces that he will soon enlarge to a five-column quarto. The Oreenbackers in this county are not very numerous, but are very zealous, and it is expected that they will support their organ. The platform and principles as formulated are very extreme, being anti-monopoly, anti-bank. Special to the Gazette.

and signed. The business transacted has been heavy and laborious both to the officers and lawyers.

Prof. Fowler gave his final lecture on phrenology last night to a moderate audience of men exclusively. He left here to-day for Fort Worth.

Harry Patton, who got up a descriptive sheet of Johnson county, leaves o-morrow for Dallas, where he will undertake a similar publication.

Business generally is light, with small cotton receipts. The stock on hand is a little above six hundred bales, the holders of which wait in the hope of an advance of the market. The shipments to date aggregate 8,823

The greater part of them have been cattle and horse stealing cases.

The war against wire fences has not diminished the demand for barb wire at Cleburne. Sales are large, and the demand active. This wire is not pur-chased for the purpose of repairing fences which have been cut, for all the wire destroyed in the country tribu-tary to Cleburne would not make a dezen specie.
